

Your 4 hour initial session

Experience the difference of next level healthcare

Health can be complex, and there's no greater investment in understanding your clinical case than by offering time. Our initial 4-hour intake session ($980) is designed to help your practitioner understand your case, formulate the beginnings of a plan and collaborate with you. Here's what happens in this session:

To begin with, your practitioner will be in detective mode to understand all the pieces of your health puzzle and help identify the root of your health problem. This involves exploring your health history, diet, lifestyle and factors like existing test results to start joining the dots on your health picture.

During the session, your practitioner will formulate a health plan alongside you to tackle your health issues. This extended consultation gives you and your practitioner the opportunity to get a sense of what working with each other can look like (see overleaf for program details).

Towards the end of your session, your health coach will join in, and will be guided by you and your practitioner to understand the support you'll need going forward. We're excited to be able to support you in reaching your health goals.

We've guided thousands of patients back to better health through our revolutionary program. Watch our explainer video here

After your initial 4 hr intake session, your investment is $5820. This is the balance of the program fee ($6800) minus your initial consult fee ($980).

Testing and supplements will likely be required, and are in addition to our program fee. Costs for these are dependant on the investigations and treatment required.

Your practitioner will always let you know what your testing options are alongside the program price, which typically range from $200-$1000 per test.

Full payment of the fee is due on the day of signing up to the program. If you prefer a payment plan, we offer payment plans.
